

The airline's representative office in Moscow took part in the international tourism forum-exhibition “ОТДЫХ Leisure”

2024 17 September

The airline's representative office in Moscow took part in the international tourism forum-exhibition “ОТДЫХ Leisure”, which is considered one of the main exhibitions in Russia before the start of the fall and winter tourist season.

As part of the event, the airline's employees hold a number of meetings with representatives of local businesses and the tourism industry, provide information on the peculiarities of cultural and historical tourism in Uzbekistan, and work to attract potential tourists to the Republic.

