

Uzbekistan Airways Service: types, difference, order

2021 21 December

Depending on the destination, time of departure, duration of flight and class of service on board, Uzbekistan Airways offers passengers breakfast, lunch, dinner, snacks or cool drinks.

The airline has a wide range of special meals, among which passengers can choose a menu suitable for their age, health and religious reasons.

Passengers may order the following on-board meals in addition to the classic on-board meals (hot meals, light breakfast, cool drinks):

- Muslim food without pork, fish without scales, animals and fish that feed on carrion, as well as alcohol;
- Baby food from a variety of easily chewed and digested foods, which include fruit, yogurt, cheese;
- A large dish of fresh seasonal fruit;
- Food without gluten, that is, wheat, rye, barley, oats, dairy products;
- Hindu food without beef and veal, instead of lamb, pork, poultry, fish, fresh vegetables and fruits, cheeses and dairy products.

A wide range of vegetarian foods is also available:

- (non-military) a variety of vegetables and fresh fruit; without meat, fish or animal products;
- (Dairy) dairy products, eggs, nuts, legumes, fresh vegetables and fruit, pasta, potatoes; without meat, poultry, shellfish, fresh fish;
- (Strict) Raw vegetables and fruits, nuts, beans, grains, pasta, potatoes; free from animal products, including eggs, dairy products and honey;
- (Asian) Nuts, legumes, fresh fruits and vegetables, rice, pasta, potatoes, cheese and dairy products, herbs and spices; without products derived from slaughtered animals, including meat, poultry, fish and shellfish, and without products such as pork and nude lard, Jelly, gravy and chicken soup. The food is heavily seasoned with Asian spices.

You can order special meals when you buy an airline ticket through the official website, Uzbekistan Airways Sales branch and airline agents, choosing the appropriate meal.
